At this time, the biggest obstacle to involving more children and caring adults in tutor/mentor programs is the need for more of the programs themselves, as well as the need for a more consistent flow of resources (dollars, volunteers, training, technology, etc.) to existing programs.

Visit the Links Library at http://www.tutormentorconnection.org to learn more about poverty mapping.
Use Chicago Area Program Locator to find programs.

You can search for programs in Chicago area, based on zip code, age served, type of program. You can also add your own program.
Welcome

The Tutor/Mentor Connection (T/MC) is dedicated to improving the availability and quality of comprehensive, long-term, volunteer-based tutor/mentor programs in high-poverty areas of the Chicago region and other large US cities through an ongoing, dynamic exchange of ideas.

Whether you are already part of a program or you are interested in finding more about tutor/mentor programs, we invite you to explore the many resources and discussion forums available to you on this Web site.

If this is your first time visiting us, our Getting Started page is a great place to begin.
Where to Learn: Map of Library on www.tutormentorconnection.org web site

Each section leads to information that you can use in planning, finding partners, raising money, recruiting volunteers.
PDF essays share our ideas and concepts others use in planning and operating a program.
Using the resources on the T/MC site can help anyone get involved as a volunteer or donor, or an organizer of a tutor/mentor or workforce development strategy.
