The T/MC seeks to recruit leaders and volunteers from many different sectors. We seek to develop a database tool that would show a list of contacts for each box that we might select.
At each university listed, the T/MC is in conversation with one or more people about working together to accomplish something related to the T/MC strategy.

Those Who Need help

Each box on the T/MC wheel chart represents a target group of “those who can help”. The T/MC seeks to be able to put a name, or names in each box, representing people who have taken different degrees of leadership responsibility.
OUR GOAL: SUPPORT THE GROWTH OF TOTAL QUALITY MENTORING PROGRAMS THAT HELP INNER CITY YOUTH REACH CAREERS

To SUCCEED
We must recruit business leaders who will use their resources in PULLING Youth to Careers

Such programs engage employee volunteers as tutors, mentors, coaches, advocates, leaders in volunteer-based programs that meet in non-school hours.
Progress since 2000

• Many more people have been added to T/MC network
• Internet has vastly expanded range and frequency of contacts
• Social Network Analysis software offers opportunity to automate this network mapping
